MONETARY PROVISIONS

VI.

ORDER TO PAY REDRESS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

23. A judgment for monetary relief is entered in favor of the Bureau and against Settling Defendants, jointly and severally, in the amount of $69,623,528, and for the purpose of providing redress to Affected Consumers; however, full payment of this judgment will be suspended upon satisfaction of the obligations in Paragraphs 24-26, 34-35 and subject to Section VII of this Order.

24. Settling Defendants hereby forfeit all legal and equitable right, title, interest and claims to assets frozen pursuant to Section VIII of the Temporary Restraining Order (ECF No. 8), dated September 9, 2014, and Section VIII of the Preliminary Injunction (ECF No. 40), dated October 3, 2014, entered in this action, which are listed in Attachment A. Provided however, that: (a) personal, non-financial items in the safe deposit box in the name of Richard F. Moseley, Account Nos. 693588443-01 and 693588443-02, shall be released to Individual Defendant Moseley, Jr.

25. Settling Defendants agree that, upon entry of the Final Order of Forfeiture in the Moseley, Sr. Criminal Case, Settling Defendants will not object to the Bureau's coordination with the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of New York to transfer the assets described in Paragraph 24 and Attachment A into a fund or funds administered by the Bureau, or the Bureau's agent according to applicable statutes and regulations, to be used for redress for Affected Consumers, including, but not limited to, refund of moneys, restitution, damages or other monetary relief, and for any attendant expenses for the administration of any such redress.

26. Settling Defendants hereby grant to the Bureau all right, title, interest and claims they have to the frozen assets currently in the possession, custody, or control of the Receiver, and shall forfeit any rights to the funds in the Receivership Estate.

27. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that providing redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or if funds remain after the administration of redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Settling Defendants will have no right to challenge the Bureau's choice of remedies under this Section, and will have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Bureau.

28. Payment of redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order may not be conditioned on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.

29. With regard to any amounts that Settling Defendants pay under this Section [Order to Pay Redress], if any Settling Defendant receives, directly or indirectly, any reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, or if any Settling Defendant secures a tax deduction, tax refund, or tax credit with regard to any federal, state, or local tax, the Settling Defendant must: (a) immediately notify the Enforcement Director in writing, and (b) within ten (10) days of receiving the funds or monetary benefit, Settling Defendant must transfer to the Bureau the full amount of such funds or monetary benefit (“Additional Payment”) to the Bureau or the Bureau’s agent according to the Bureau’s wiring instructions. After the Bureau receives the Additional Payment, the amount of the suspended judgment referenced in Paragraph 23 will be reduced by the amount of the Additional Payment and the Additional Payment will be applied toward satisfaction of the monetary judgment entered in Paragraph 23.

EFFECT OF MISREPRESENTATION OR OMISSION REGARDING FINANCIAL CONDITION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

30. The suspension of the monetary judgment entered in Section VI of this Order is expressly premised on the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Settling Defendants’ financial statements and supporting documents submitted to the Bureau, which Settling Defendants assert are truthful, accurate, and complete.

31. If upon motion by the Bureau, the Court determines that Settling Defendants have failed to disclose any material asset or that any of their financial statements or oral testimony contain any material misrepresentation or omission, including materially misstating the value of any asset, the Court shall terminate the suspension of the monetary judgment entered in Section VI and, without further adjudication, shall reinstate the judgment entered in Section VI of this Order and the full judgment of $69,623,528 shall be immediately due and payable, less any amounts paid to the Bureau under Section VI of this Order.

32. If the Court terminates the suspension of the monetary judgment under this Section, the Bureau will be entitled to interest on the judgment, computed from the date of entry of this Order, at the rate prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, on any outstanding amounts not paid.

33. Provided, however, that in all other respects this Order shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and, provided further, that proceedings instituted under this provision would be in addition to, and not in lieu of any other civil or criminal remedies as may be provided by law, including any other proceedings that the Bureau may initiate to enforce this Order.

VIII.

ORDER TO PAY CIVIL MONEY PENALTY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

34. Under Section 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law described in Counts I-IV of the Complaint taking place during the Relevant Time Period, and taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), Settling Defendants must pay a civil money penalty of one dollar ($1) to the Bureau. This penalty is based in part on Settling Defendants' limited ability to pay as attested to in the financial statements and supporting documents Settling Defendants submitted to the Bureau.

35. Within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, Settling Defendants must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.

36. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by Section 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

IX.

ADDITIONAL MONETARY PROVISIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

37. In the event of any default on the Settling Defendants' obligation to make payment under this Order, interest, computed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

38. Settling Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law and no part of the funds may be returned to Settling Defendants.

39. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any proceeding based on the entry of the Order, or in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Bureau in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order, such as a non-dischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

40. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Bureau pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §

523(a)(2)(A), and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect against each Settling Defendant, even in such Settling Defendant's capacity as debtor-in-possession.

41. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Settling Defendants, unless they have already done so, must furnish to the Bureau their taxpayer identifying numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

42. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, Settling Defendants must notify the Enforcement Director of the final judgment, order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that any Settling Defendant paid or is required to pay to consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, Settling Defendants may not argue that they are entitled to, nor may Settling Defendants benefit by, any offset or reduction of any monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund ("Penalty Offset"). If the court in any Related Consumer Action grants such a Penalty Offset, Settling Defendants must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting the Penalty Offset, pay the amount of the Penalty Offset to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

43. Under Section 604(a)(1) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(1), any consumer reporting agency may furnish a consumer report concerning any Settling Defendant to the Bureau, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.
